American Life in the Seventeenth Century, 1607-1692

Part I: Reviewing the Chapter

A. Checklist of Learning Objectives

After mastering this chapter, you should be able to

1. describe the basic population structure and social life of the seventeenth-century colonies.
2. compare and contrast the different populations and ways of life of the southern colonies and New England.
3. explain how the problems of indentured servitude led to political trouble and the growth of African slavery.
4. describe the slave trade and the character of early African-American slavery
5. explain how the New England way of life centered on family, town, and church, and describe the changes that affected this way of life.
6. describe the various conditions affecting women and family life in the seventeenth-century colonies.

B. Glossary

To build your social science vocabulary, familiarize yourself with the following terms.

1. headright The right to acquire a certain amount of land granted to the person who finances the passage of a laborer. "Masters—not servants themselves—thus reaped the benefits of land-ownership from the headright system." (p. 67)
2. disfranchise To take away the right to vote. "The Virginia Assembly in 1670 disfranchised most of the landless knockabouts. . . ." (p. 68)
3. civil war Any conflict between the citizens or inhabitants of the same country. "As this civil war in Virginia ground on . . ." (p. 68)
4. tidewater The territory adjoining water affected by tides—that is, near the seacoast or coastal rivers. "Bacon . . . had pitted the hard scrabble backcountry frontiersmen against the haughty gentry of the tidewater plantations." (pp. 68, 70)
5. middle passage That portion of a slave ship's journey in which slaves were carried from Africa to the Americas. ". . . the captives were herded aboard sweltering ships for the gruesome 'middle passage.' . . ." (p. 71)
6. fertility The ability to mate and produce abundant young. "The captive black population of the Chesapeake area soon began to grow not only through new imports but also through its own fertility. . . ." (p. 72)
7. menial Fit for servants; humble or low. "But chiefly they performed the sweaty toil of clearing swamps, grubbing out trees, and other menial tasks." (p. 73)
8. militia An armed force of citizens called out only in emergencies. "[They] tried to march to Spanish Florida, only to be stopped by the local militia." (p. 73)

9. hierarchy A social group arranged in ranks or classes. "The rough equality . . . was giving way to a hierarchy of wealth and status. . . ." (p. 73)
10. corporation A group or institution granted legal rights to carry on certain specified activities. ". . . the Massachusetts Puritans established Harvard College, today the oldest corporation in America. . . ." (p. 79)
11. jeremiad A sermon or prophecy recounting wrongdoing, warning of doom, and calling for repentance. "Jeremiads continued to thunder from the pulpits. . . ." (p. 80)
12. lynching The illegal execution of an accused person by mob action, without due process of law. "A hysterical 'witch-hunt' ensued, leading to the legal lynching in 1692 of twenty individuals. . . ." (p. 80)
13. hinterland An inland region set back from a port, river, or seacoast. ". . . their accusers came largely from subsistence farming families in Salem's hinterland." (p. 80)
14. social structure The basic pattern of the distribution of status and wealth in a society. ". . . many settlers . . . tried to re-create on a modified scale the social structure they had known in the Old World." (p. 83)
15. blue blood Of noble or upper-class descent. ". . . would-be American blue bloods resented the pretensions of the 'meaner sort.' . . ." (p. 83)

- ___ Partial church membership is opened to the unconverted.
- ___ African slaves begin to replace white indentured labor on southern plantations.
- ___ Poor Virginia whites revolt against governor and rich planters.
- ___ First Africans arrive in Virginia.

F. Matching Cause and Effect

Match the historical cause in the left column with the proper effect in the right column by writing the correct letter on the blank line.

Cause	Effect
___ 1. The severe shortage of females in southern colonies	A. Inspired passage of strict “slave codes”
___ 2. Poor white males’ anger at their inability to acquire land or start families	B. Sparked Bacon’s Rebellion
___ 3. Planters’ fears of indentured servants’ rebellion, coupled with rising wages in England	C. Produced large number of unattached males and weak family structure
___ 4. The dramatic increase in colonial slave population after 1680s	D. Thwarted success in agriculture but helped create the tough New England character
___ 5. The growing proportion of female slaves in the Chesapeake region after 1720	E. Inspired the Half-Way Covenant and jeremiad preaching
___ 6. New Englanders’ introduction of livestock and intensive agriculture	F. Reduced forests and damaged the soil
___ 7. The healthier climate and more equal male-female ratio in New England	G. Produced high birthrates and a very stable family structure
___ 8. The decline of religious devotion and in number of conversions in New England	H. Fostered stronger slave families and growth of slave population through natural reproduction of children
___ 9. Unsettled New England social conditions and anxieties about the decline of the Puritan religious heritage	I. Underlay the Salem witchcraft persecutions
___ 10. The rocky soil and harsh climate of New England	J. Caused southern planters to switch from indentured-servant labor to African slavery

G. Developing Historical Skills

Learning from Historical Documents

The illustrations on pp. 69 and 79 reproduce parts of two colonial documents: excerpts from an indentured servant's contract and some pages from children's school materials. By carefully examining even these small partial documents, you can learn more about early colonial culture and ideas.

Answering the following questions will illustrate the kind of information that historical documents can provide.

1. What are the principal goals that both the master and the indentured servant are seeking in the contract?
2. What potential problems does each side anticipate?
3. What does the reference to the mother's consent suggest about this servant's condition?
4. What do the children's materials tell us about how the Puritans wanted their children to think about the relation between education and moral behavior?
5. Give two examples from these materials of how the Puritans incorporated religious teaching into their children's instruction.

Part III: Applying What You Have Learned

1. How did the factors of population, economics, disease, and climate shape the basic social conditions and ways of life of early Americans in both the South and New England?
2. How did African-Americans develop a culture that combined African and American elements? What were some of the features of that culture?
3. How did the numbers and condition of women affect family life and society in New England, among southern whites, and among African-American slaves? Compare and contrast the typical family conditions and ways of life among various members of these three groups.
4. How did the harsh climate and soil, stern religion, and tightly knit New England town shape the "Yankee character"?
5. Compare the conditions of seventeenth-century social, economic, and religious life in New England and the Chesapeake region.
6. How did the Salem witch episode reflect the tensions and changes in seventeenth-century New England life and thought?
7. In what ways did the English and Africans who came to America in the seventeenth century have to shape their society and way of life to fit the conditions they faced in the New World?
